WORKSHIFT: The evolving workplace

A PRINT + DIGITAL + SOCIAL MEDIA FEATURE

The nature of work is changing – it's no longer a destination where people are paid just for showing up. What increasingly matters is providing the means for people to be effective and efficient in performing and completing tasks where and when they are needed. The shift towards a more flexible, more freelance and more collaborative work world is already taking place in many areas – and thought leaders present innovative solutions for the next-generation work force.
