

A PRINT AND ONLINE ADVERTISING FEATURE IN CANADA'S #1 NATIONAL NEWSPAPER AND #1 NEWS WEBSITE

ENERGY BUILDERS

A PRINT + DIGITAL + SOCIAL MEDIA FEATURE

Canada's energy landscape is in transition. While a lack of export capacity for oil and gas is holding back producer spending, hiring and share prices, it is pushing companies to accelerate innovation to lower costs and get more out of existing resource plays. Bigger picture innovation is needed because businesses recognize the emergence of a new set of industry rules – recovery today is about being a low-cost producer and/or offering a better product, including with less carbon.
