INVESTMENT: SPECIAL NATIONAL FEATURE OR CONTRACT RATES APPLY

Published to coincide with the GLOBE Capital event in Toronto, this special feature will explore the powerful potential of the clean economy. By 2030, global investment in advanced low-carbon infrastructure is projected to reach $90-billion. How can Canadian leaders in finance, infrastructure, cleantech and resources help to unlock the capital to realize this economic opportunity?

Proposed topics:

- Climate resilience – Strategies for mitigating economic, social and climate risks.
- Low-carbon future – Leveraging impactful sustainability measures.
- Scaling cleantech – Taking cleantech solutions to the next level.
