The Canadian health-care system has experienced significant change in recent decades, and even greater changes and pressures are anticipated as the boomer generation moves into their senior years, along with other factors, such as a rise in chronic conditions among all age groups, increasing physician fees and population growth. This special feature highlights trends, strategies and innovations with the potential to address current and future challenges.

Proposed topics:

OUTREACH & ADVOCACY – Communicating proven health recommendations and debunking myths.

EDUCATION – Up-to-date training for health-care professionals.

RESEARCH & INNOVATION – New findings and technologies for better patient outcomes.

HEALTHY SOCIETY – Support for Canadians of all ages: at home, in school and at work.
