The average life expectancy of Canadians continues to rise, and technology and innovation can enable older adults to make the most of a time when they face age-related challenges. What are some of the technology-based solutions that can help Canadians stay healthy and independent during their later years?

Proposed topics:

IDEAS – How we are going to deal with an aging population? RESEARCH - New approaches for healthy aging.

ADVICE - Strategies and technology solutions enhancing quality of life.

WORK & CAREGIVING – Balancing responsibilities.
