To ensure long-term success, businesses have to yield competitive returns for their shareholders and treat their employees fairly. They also have wider responsibilities that include minimizing any harm to the environment and working in ways that benefit the communities where they operate. This special feature explores the topic of business ethics and highlights examples of corporate leadership.

- Proposed topics:
- BRAND CANADA – What does 21st century Canadian leadership look like?
 - ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY – From clean energy to sustainability strategies.
 - COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT – Companies and partnerships making a difference.
 - HEALTHY WORKPLACES – Supporting employees and attracting top talent.
