

JUNE / Summer Design 2020 & Men's Fashion Guide

From the inspiring homes of Canadian style insiders to the top trends in architecture, interiors and furniture, our summer design guide offers readers insight into creating a dream space. The issue also captures the season's best men's wear, from casual suiting to statement-making timepieces, and outdoor entertaining ideas covering news in food, drink and restaurants.

Cover Feature

How do you create a covetable home out of a garage in an industrial neighbourhood? Beth Hitchcock profiles a group who put their creative heads together to make it happen

Fashion & Grooming

ESSENTIALS

For the man who'd rather not wear an oversized watch, a primer on more discreet timepieces. Plus, the classic labels bringing a preppy look back to your closet

FEATURES

After a surge in streetwear, the suit is returning as the centerpiece of men's wardrobes. For summer, that means learning the new rules of tailoring from casual shapes to soft hues
