COVID-19 has upended our daily lives and everyone is feeling the impact in some way. But the pandemic has also created an opportunity for organizations to act with purpose and to show they care about more than the bottom line. These special features look at the various ways Canadian businesses and institutions are stepping up to help the communities they serve in a time of unprecedented need.

Potential story ideas

- How hospitals are stepping up with trials and tests to fight COVID-19.
- What grocery stores, restaurants and other retailers are doing to help food banks and charitable organizations.
- How fashion brands and retailers are making masks or gowns for hospitals.
- How retailers are reserving shopping hours for at-risk groups
- Retailer-offered resources to keep communities connected
