Canadians pay close attention to their food choices, especially when it comes to feeding their families. This special feature will explore the latest trends affecting the food industry and highlight brands and companies that go the extra mile to engage with consumers.

Proposed topic highlights:

Family favourites – Recipes and essential household staples.

Trending – Snacks and innovation in family foods.

Home delivery & e-commerce – The latest in grocery and subscription services.

Top brands – The brands preferred by Canadian families.

Health & nutrition – Information families pay attention to.
