The global pandemic has served to accelerate a shift in how – and where – we work. What increasingly matters is providing the means for people to be effective and efficient in performing and completing tasks where and when they are needed and collaborate across locations and media. This special feature explores the innovative and durable solutions that serve the workforce of today and tomorrow.

Proposed topic highlights:

THE POWER OF VIRTUAL TEAMS – Bringing together top talent from across the globe and across disciplines.

WORKING REMOTELY & FLEX TIME – How organizations facilitate the transition to a flexible work environment.

TECHNOLOGY – Technologies that keep employees connected and enable efficient team work.

ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS – Innovative work distributions leading to energy savings and reducing environmental impact.
