The impact of the pandemic on personal finances has inspired Canadians of all ages to seek professional advice on navigating through tough times as well as building financial resiliency for the future. This special feature – produced in collaboration with FP Canada – will explore strategies for enhanced and shock-resistant financial well-being.

Proposed topic highlights:

Starting out – Students and early-career professionals building solid financial habits.

Meeting the needs of families – Adapting financial strategies to changing circumstances.

Ready to retire – Planning for the golden years.

Leaving a legacy – Taking the long view.
