

MARCH / Spring Fashion 2021 & Beauty

A sense of fantasy and escape infuses the spring collections with a playful spirit. This issue celebrates the exuberance of fashion, accessories, jewellery, beauty and fragrance, helping our readers connect to the joy that style can bring into their lives.

Omnibus

What's new and noteworthy for Spring 2021 including the fashion launches, retail openings and beauty debuts Canadian shoppers are excited about. We also profile a buzzy new book that captures the diverse voices adding their creative spirit to the global style conversation.

Essentials

The Globe and Mail Style Advisor's Essentials section features the key finds and trends in fashion, beauty, design, travel, tech, food and drink, and columns on the industry players and ideas to watch. FEATURE In fine jewellery and costume baubles, designers look to nature for inspiration, creating collections that celebrate whimsical creatures.

FASHION & BEAUTY

The sweat suit gives way to more elevated matching shirt and trousers sets. Plus, a viewing guide to new fashion and beauty films.

DESIGN & TRAVEL

As we start thinking about warmer weekend getaways, a guide to design-forward inns across the country. Plus, tips for adding spring touches to your home workspace.

FOOD & DRINK

We spotlight the brands bringing a more contemporary look to professional cookware, and ask top sommeliers about the new wine trends they're itching to pour.

Features

FASHION

A fresh take on florals in fashion and accessories is just what we need to spring forward into the new season.

FRAGRANCE

We escape to Grasse in the south of France and explore the connection between history and innovation in perfume.

DESIGN

For every beauty buff who has made a ritual out of a love of cosmetics, a design guide to creating a dream vanity space.
