During much of 2020, Canadians chose to stay close to home and many are wondering what's next. When and where can they travel? How can they pick their destinations with care? This special feature will highlight the views of experts and leaders in the travel industry about vacation planning that can champion safety while supporting the Canadian economy.

Proposed topic highlights:

Top destinations – Exploring the options for Canadian travellers

Canadian highlights – Activities and offerings for getaways across the country.

Planes, trains and automobiles – Means of transportation and the safety protocols behind them.

Planning & protection – Travel advisory updates, planning tools and safety measures.
