While food consumption has undergone a noticeable change over the past year, some priorities have stayed the same. Canadians consider their food choices against the backdrop of their overall goals of better health for their bodies, planet and wallets. This special feature will look at the leaders, advocates and innovators that are shaping the future of food.

Proposed topic highlights:

CONSUMER PRIORITIES – Looking to food for better health outcomes, sustainability and convenience.

SERVICE & INNOVATION – New products and services, including meal deliveries.

CHEFS' CHOICE – Experts share their visions on the future of food.

FOOD SECURITY – Initiatives boosting food security across the country.

EATING OUT – Adapting to the new normal in the hospitality industry.
