

SEPTEMBER / The Fall Fashion 2021 & Beauty Issue

Our fall guide inspires readers with ambitious features on everything defining fashion, cosmetics and fragrance for women and men for the new season.

Omnibus

The magazine kicks off with our Omnibus pages where we get our readers excited about the season's big style moments and influential personalities.

The New Essentials: A shoppable guide to everything that's new now

All of style's big fall launches are covered in our new market section, expanded to include pages on watches, technology and luxury automobiles. We also cover must-haves in men's and women's fashion, beauty, grooming, travel, wine and spirits.

FASHION

The return of city clothes

As lifestyles shift toward a balance between homebound comfort and urbane sophistication, we rediscover a love for tailored pieces and everyday formality that is well-suited to exploring downtown

DESIGN

The spaces that inspire what we wear

Leading women in the fashion industry show off the wardrobes and dressing rooms that help them stay connected to their passion for fashion with insight on how to create and curate your fall closet.

BEAUTY

Short story

Autumn's cropped hairstyles offer a liberating way to rid yourself of pandemic locks. Beauty editor Caitlin Agnew talks to women ready to chop it all off and offers inspiration for updated shags and bobs.

PERSONAL STYLE

Dressing up for going out

Lately, nothing has been further from most people's fashion reality than evening clothes. Our new personal style column looks forward to the exuberant creative expression behind after-hours looks.
