INVESTMENT: SPECIAL NATIONAL FEATURE OR CONTRACT RATES APPLY

Among the lessons learned from the pandemic, employees matter. Celebrated the first Friday in March, Employee Appreciation Day acknowledges the countless ways that employees contribute to organizational success year-round. This special feature will highlight ways that leading organizations are strengthening staff retention and engagement through recognition and other progressive practices.

Proposed topic highlights:

- APPRECIATION – Recognizing successes and achievements.
- LEADERSHIP – Insights into how leading firms retain and engage staff through turbulent times.
- BEYOND A PAYCHEQUE – How a progressive corporate ESG and CSR ethos can align with brand and staff values.

All this and more!
