Recent years have highlighted how uncertain times – from public health crises to economic disruptions – can add to the stress that many Canadians already feel about managing their finances. This special feature, produced in conjunction with leading experts and published during the annual Financial Planning Week in November, will explore the strategies that certified financial professionals offer to help clients determine their financial values and priorities and to build financial resiliency in the face of a changing world.

Proposed topic highlights:

EXPERT ADVICE – Accessing professionals well-suited to your personal and professional goals.

SOLUTIONS – The latest expert approaches to building financial well-being.

RESOURCES – Where to find information for navigating unique financial situations.

TRENDS – Evolving financial concerns among Canadians.
