Across Canada, organizations are charged with advancing equity, diversity and inclusion to create a better, healthier society in which no one is left behind. This special feature will highlight examples of leadership where organizations, initiatives and thought-leaders are making a difference by respecting the unique needs, perspectives and potential of all people, with special emphasis on marginalized populations, such as women, racialized groups, special needs individuals and members of the LGBTQ+ community.

Proposed topic highlights:

- LEADERSHIP – Examples of achievements that serve to inspire.
- ADVOCACY – Advancing understanding and offering support.
- IMPACT – The benefits of diverse and inclusive workplaces.
- STRATEGIES – Tackling bias and advancing inclusion.
- OUTLOOK – How can Canada better leverage its multicultural advantage through attention to equity, diversity and inclusion?
