Canada's mineral exploration and development industry supports 719,000 people in direct and indirect employment and contributes $106-billion to the country's GDP every year. This special feature – produced in collaboration with the Prospectors & Developers Association of Canada (PDAC) – will explore the challenges and opportunities affecting the mining and exploration sector and the companies providing geological, engineering, legal and capital markets financing services to this industry.

Proposed topic highlights:

- LEADERSHIP – Partnerships, organizations and initiatives boosting performance and outcomes.
- SUSTAINABILITY – Improving environmental and social impact through responsible practices.
- TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION – New knowledge and solutions for practices, products and services.
- INVESTMENT TRENDS – Advice for strategic decision-making.
- OUTLOOK – Navigating a changing global economic and regulatory environment with success.
