December Issue

As Gen Z enters the workplace, hybrid office arrangements become the norm and various global, environmental and economic factors influence the way companies are being run, the way we define leadership is evolving. This feature will look at “leadership for tomorrow” – what leadership qualities organizations want now, how that’s changed in recent years, and how that is expected to evolve. Advertisers will get the opportunity to put their company’s leadership in the spotlight in the context of the article.
